Coverage

- Introduction
- Museum Documentation
- Documentation System
- Collection Care
- Documenting ICH
- Digital Documentation Vs. Physical Documentation
- Conclusion

Introduction

- There are 3 levels of practices
  - Basic practice
  - Good practice
  - Best practice
- What is best practice?
  - commendable actions and
  - philosophies that demonstrate an awareness of standards, solve problems and can be replicated.

- Nine broad areas that can be evaluated using those practices
  - Policy
  - Buildings
  - Storage
  - Housekeeping
  - Handling and use of collections
  - Environmental monitoring and control
  - Conservation
  - Surrogate copies and new media
  - Emergency preparedness

(The Council for Museums, Archives and Libraries, 2002)

Documenting ICH

- Safeguard them before it dies or disappears from the community
- Safeguard means transmitting of knowledge, skills
- Transmitting or communicating ICH from generation to generation as living heritage
- ICH should be an active part of present generation
- Museums can employ modern technologies to transform them into tangible presentation

Documenting ICH contd..

- Inventories
  - Can be used as a tool for documentation
  - Provides necessary information about museum artifacts such as size, location and its significance to the particular community
  - It can be physical inventory or computerized data base system
  - Valuable piece of document for research, heritage tourism and for general public
  - Provides information about museum artifacts

Documenting ICH contd..

Inventories

- Providing accurate, accessible and complete information of archeological sites, historic buildings, museums, archives and libraries.
- Protect the museum artifacts legally during armed conflicts, natural and human made disasters
- Provide accurate identification of the museum artifacts and clearly express the values
- It is important to maintain clear, accurate inventory data for museum documentation to avoid problems

Documenting ICH contd..

- Use of multimedia technologies to preserve undocumented ICH such as –
  - expressions
  - social rituals
  - daily rituals
  - performing arts
  - oral traditions
  - knowledge and practices etc.

COLOMBO NATIONAL MUSEUM

The Colombo Museum as it was called at the beginning was established on 1st January 1877. Its founder was Sir William Henry Gregory, the British Governor of Ceylon (Sri Lanka) at the time.

The Royal Asiatic Society (CB) was instrumental in bringing to the notice of Gregory on his appointment as Governor in 1872 the need for a public museum with much difficulty the approval of the legislative council was obtained within a year. The Architect of the Public Works Department, J.G. Smither was able to prepare the plans for new structure on Italian architectural style. The construction was completed in 1876 and the Museum commenced its functions in the following year.

The Authorities of the museum took various steps to display the cultural and natural heritage of the country for this purpose.

With the development of the museum to international level, it earned the status of a national museum during the period of Dr. P. E. P. Deraniyagala. He was able to open up branch museums in Jaffna, Kandy and Ratnapura and a full - fledged Department of National Museums was established in 1942 under the act No. 31. The extension of the number of branch museums has now increased to nine and in addition a school science programme and a mobile museum service are also in operation.

This process has further been improved by the arrangement of the galleries of the ground floor in a historical sequence and those of the upper galleries on a thematic basis.
