

Walter Koch

a.o.Univ.-Prof. em. Dr. Walter Koch received a PhD in Mathematics and Physics from University of Graz in 1970. He is director of AIT Ltd. (Angewandte Informationstechnik Forschungsgesellschaft mbH) and lecturer at the University of Graz (European Masters programme for "European Heritage, Digital Media and the Information Society" - EuroMACHS). He is chairperson of CSC – Content Service Centre Austria and head of the Steinbeis Innovation Transferzentrum (IMCHI – Information Management and Cultural Heritage Informatics). He was professor for "Machine Documentation and Information Services" (habilitation) at the Graz Technical University. Actually he is involved in Digital Library projects (Europeana) and the development of an information system based on the SPECTRUM procedures. He prepares in a "flipped classroom" style educational material covering "Museum Documentation" and "Knowledge Management for Digital Humanities". Prof.Koch heads the CIDOC Working Group: "Museum Process Implementation".